

Indicator LEDs use low currents to keep them dim, however the Status LED is intentionally bright to get attention. The values specified are for use with 3.3 volts and should be increased when used with 5 volts.

